

LES JACOBS FORD MECURY HIRES NEW BODY SHOP MANAGER WITH MORE THAN 20 YEARS IN AUTO BODY REPAIR

Cassville, MO — Les Jacobs Ford Mercury employs new Body Shop Manager George Allen. Mr. Allen has been in the auto business his entire life with twenty plus years in auto body repair and several years as an insurance adjuster. “We were fortunate to find George Allen,” says Darrin Jacobs, general manager of Les Jacobs Ford Mercury. “George’s good nature and extensive experience in all areas of collision repair, from handling insurance to putting on the final coat of paint, will be a great asset to our customers. With his business experience, George knows what it is like to experience loss and he knows how to help.”

Mr. Allen is passionate about cars, specifically Fords, and this love of cars has branched into metal sculpture and an enjoyment for the arts. The Allen family has been traveling to Roaring River to fish for years. The love of the area combined with Allen’s experience and passion for cars is a win-win for customers of Les Jacobs Ford Mercury.

The Allen family, who moved to Northwest Arkansas four years ago from Oklahoma, currently reside in Bella Vista, Arkansas. Mr. Allen and wife Sheila have seven children, six girls and one boy. Their youngest daughter, Savannah, is a high school senior. The Allens plan to move to the Cassville area in the Spring.
